

Jeanne Kilian

Jeanne Kilian (Nee Wildonger) was born and raised in the Kensington section of Philadelphia and is a graduate of Little Flower Catholic HS for Girls. She also earned a Bachelor of Science degree from Philadelphia University (currently Thomas Jefferson University) and has worked in leadership roles in the Apparel industry for 27 years. Jeanne is married to Thomas Kilian, a 24-year NJEA elementary school teacher in Washington Township NJ and a 34-year veteran of the Wildwood Beach Patrol. She is the mother of three daughters who currently attend the Wildwood School system.

Jeanne and her husband have owned a home in Wildwood since 2005 yet in 2013 they made the town their permanent residence to raise their children. Since moving to Wildwood Jeanne has inserted herself into the community in various roles such as the former Secretary of Planning and Zoning, she was a member of the Board of Education, and served on the Wildwood Recreation Commission. Jeanne cares about the youth of our community and started and facilitated a sewing program at the Byrne Community Center from 2016 up until the arrival of covid in 2020. Since then, she has opened her own private instruction at a location on Pacific Avenue. In the last few years since the last election, Jeanne has furthered her education earning a NJ Uniform Construction Code license from Atlantic Cape Community College and has attended and passed a NJ Real Estate Class at the Cape Atlantic Real Estate School.
