

Steve Mikulski

Born and raised in Medford New Jersey.

After honorably completing his service to our nation in the US Navy, he worked in the pharmaceutical industry.

As a child and young adult, Steve enjoyed traveling to Wildwood, where he loved our fantastic boardwalk and beach.

In 2008, Steve and his wife decided to fulfil their dream by buying the old landmark Hen House restaurant in Pacific Ave, renovated it to become the popular, year round Key West Café.

Steve dedicated his life to his wife Jackie, step children Dan and Dayna, his two grandchildren, his family's business and the Wildwood community he loves.

Steve became Commissioner of Public Safety in 2020. He realigned Fire and EMS contracts, assisted engineers and administrator at the time on the Dune Project, worked with the Army Corps of Engineers, restructured the Code Department, oversaw traffic studies on Ocean and Atlantic Avenues, in addition to Park Blvd and spearheaded the revision unclear and outdated ordinances.
